

ORGANIZATIONS SUPPORTING STUDENTS and THEIR FAMILIES

Here is a list of local and national organizations and foundations for students and their parents. Sites may provide anything from strategies for college application to scholarship information. Check back, updated frequently.

AMERICAN LEGION

Programs for students with diverse backgrounds and interest.

BOTTOM LINE

High school juniors and seniors get into college and support them once they are attending

BARBER FAMILY FOUNDATION

Active, retired and Gold Star Military Families

COLLEGE GREENLIGHT, PART OF CAPPEX

Search for scholarships and browse information about colleges

COMMON APPLICATION

Apply to over 500 public and private colleges through one application

GATES SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Scholarships supporting outstanding students from underrepresented groups

I'M FIRST, PART OF STRIVE FOR COLLEGE

An online community for first-generation college students

JACK KENTE COOKE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAMS

Scholarships supporting outstanding students with financial need, undergraduate and graduate

MARINE CORPS SCHOLARSHIP FOUNDATION

Academic scholarships to children of United States Marines and Navy Corpsmen

POSSE FOUNDATION

Scholarships for public high school students from a number of U.S. cities, including Boston

QUESTBRIDGE

College and scholarship application for low-income high school seniors

SCHOLARSHIP AMERICA

Assisting through individual and Dollars for Scholars

STEPPINGSTONE FOUNDATION

Access programs for students in the Boston area

TMCF SCHOLARSHIPS

Thurgood Marshall Scholarship Fund (TMCF) scholarships for students attending public member Historically Black Colleges & Universities (HBCUs)

UNCF SCHOLARSHIPS & STEM SCHOLARS

United Negro College Fund (UNCF) scholarships for students attending private member Historically Black Colleges & Universities (HBCUs)

Information provide by the college experts at Get College Going and those that bring you Pivotal College Years. We provide guidance and counseling on everything college, before, during and after!